SOCIAL REFORMERS OF THE 19TH CENTURY

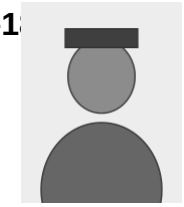

Class 8 History | Sample notes

1. RAJA RAM MOHAN ROY – Social reformer (1772–1833)

- Founded the Brahmo Samaj in 1828.
- Campaigned against Sati, which was banned in 1829.
- Supported Western education and English schools.
- Roy is called the Father of the Indian Renaissance.

2. ISHWAR CHANDRA VIDYASAGAR – Educationist and reformer (1820–1

- Worked to improve the lives of widows.
- His efforts led to the Widow Remarriage Act of 1856.
- Opened many schools for girls in Bengal.
- Vidyasagar was a title meaning ocean of learning.

3. JYOTIRAO PHULE – Social reformer (1827–1890)

- Fought against caste discrimination.
- Started a school for girls in Pune in 1848 with his wife Savitribai Phule.
- Founded the Satyashodhak Samaj in 1873.

QUICK COMPARISON

- Raja Ram Mohan Roy = Brahmo Samaj + end of Sati
- Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar = Widows + girls' schools
- Jyotirao Phule = Against caste + Satyashodhak Samaj